UNIZIK STUDENTS TAKE 2ND IN NATIONAL QUIZ COMPETITION

Nwojo Emmanuel and UkairoChidimma, the students of Quantity Surveying Department, UNIZIK have made the University proud as they bagged the 2nd position in the recently concluded National Quantity Surveying

Students Quiz Competition.

The competition took place during the Nigerian Institute of Quantity Surveyors 4th Research Conference (NIQS RECON 4) held at the International Conference Center, IMT, Enugu State between 10th to 12th September, 2019.

NEW DAWN FOR IGBOLAND AS UNIZIK MARKS IRI JI, EZI-NA-IFITE IGBO LECTURE

Chief Remy Ezeonwuka, Chairman at the 2019 Iri Ji UNIZIK and Ezi-Na-Ifite Igbo Heritage Cultural festival, has described the festival as a new beginning for Igboland.

Chief Ezeonwuka expressed joy for the locally Igbo-made products which opposed Igbo's predilections for foreign made, even when the locally-made counterparts are just as good. Chief Ezeonwuka promised to use his vantage position as trader to get Onitsha business men to sponsor the mass production of the products and to provide them with a platform to compete and thrive. Some of the UNIZIK-manufactured products include Ogirisi Igbo Tea (Igbo Village Bioresource); Mbulinu Tea (Igbo Village Biogenic Bitters); Tunnica toothpaste among others.

Earlier in his words, the Vice-Chancellor, Prof. Charles Esimone, FAS lauded the festival as the University's all-important annual Igbo Festival which in the pristine Igbo culture, is an occasion to offer new yam to Ahajoku, the presumed god of the earth's fertility for a bounteous harvest. Prof. Esimone who was represented by the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic), Prof. F.J.C Odibo commended the Director IVACAC, Prof. Bonachristus Umeogu and the directorate for assembling a galaxy of Igbo sons to the event.

Other presences in attendance include the Royal Father of the day, HRM Obi Gibson Nwosu, Eze-Uzu II; the Oba Ji Guest speakers: Ezeji Elugwaraonu Augustine Agbakwuru, Professor of General/Surgery, OAU Teaching Hospital; and Ezeji Clifford Nwogwugwu; Ezeji Nnayerugo of Itu, Ezinihite Mbaiese, Acting College Librarian, Nwafor Orizu College of Education Nsugbe among others.

ENGR. ONUNKWO'S ULTRA-MODERN BUS STATION, A THOUGHTFUL GESTURE — VC

The Vice-Chancellor, Prof. Charles Esimone, FAS has commended Engr. Johnbosco Onunkwo for his kind sponsorship of the construction of an ultra-modern bus station at Ifite gate. This approbation came during Engr. Onunkwo's courtesy call on Prof. Esimone following his appointment as the VC of the University.

During the visit, the Founder, Johnbosco Onunkwo Foundation said that he is in line with NUC and UNIZIK find Prof. Esimone worthy of the office. Speaking further, Engr. Onunkwo lauded Prof. Esimone as the man with the password to catapult the University to greater heights and so he pledged to do anything to see his alma mater, UNIZIK, at the best. He revealed he was in the University for the foundation stone laying of an Ultra-modern bus station which would serve both staff and students on completion. The benefactor equally disclosed that the multi-million naira project would be ready for commissioning in December.

The VC, Prof. Esimone applauded Engr. Onunkwo's gesture, branding it a thoughtful one which borders on the true essence of Alumni. The VC stated that with the likes of the philanthropist Onunkwo in the political space, he represents a symbol of hope. In his words, the VC said, "This project will touch the core of the students' lives because anything that enhances their welfare gets the utmost priority." Prof. Esimone further urged other alumni to borrow a leaf from Engr. Onunkwo while branding him the thankful leper out of ten who has come home to show gratitude.

Recall that, Engr. Onunkwo agreed to sponsor the bus station construction during the last Transport Summit of the Directorate of Transport, SUG which held sometime in August and his Foundation equally donated a whopping 5 Million Naira endowment to the Faculty of Environmental Sciences for research.

FIVE OUTSTANDING STUDENTS OF FACULTY OF ENGINEERING BAG DMOHGA SCHOLARSHIP AWARD

Five outstanding students in the Faculty of Engineering have received the second tranche of scholarship award from the Distinguished Men of Honour Global Association (DMOHGA) comprising mainly the old boys of the Faculty.
